Carnegie Institution

1915
108

.275

December 13th, 1913

Professor J. Home Cameron,

University College.

Dear Professor Cameron:

The Board agreed that the privilege of attending lectures as occasional students without fee should be granted to wives of members of the staff.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Board

426

3rd June 1914.

My Dear Mr. President

In view of the action of the Medical Faculty Council last evening requiring candidates for the September supplemental Examinations to take Clinical instruction for the two months preceding the Examination, I suppose it will be necessary to appoint Exam

iners

~~Examiners~~ teachers to discharge that duty at the Hospitals named (The Samuel, St. Michael's and the Childrens) and so I beg to nominate Dr. Woodhead, at the Genual Hospital, Dr. Malcolm Cameron, at St. Michaels, and
Dr. Bruce Robinson at the Childrens Hospital.

Your Obedient Servant

J. K. Cameron